High Ransom wins the July Shootout

The July 2007 match was held on a beautiful but hot day in South Georgia. With a lot of sun and very little breeze, it seemed hotter than the actual temperature.

We had fifteen shooters, so we had only one posse. However, we were able to run through the five scenarios fairly quickly, finishing by in the early afternoon.

It was so hot that nobody came away with a clean match – not even close. The bonus target on scenario 1 seemed to be easy enough for most everyone.

High Ransom shot consistently well all day to win the match. High Plains Shifter and Ethan Sackett duked it out for 2nd place, while Chickasaw County Kid finished a strong 4th just ahead of Cimarron Star [I think this is her strongest finish so far - ed]

It was good to see Swifty Bob again. He has missed several shoots due to health issues.

We welcome our newest cowboy, Waki T Baki. He's going to be a force to reckon with in the future, when he gets into a comfort zone with the shotgun.

Thanks to Papa Jake, High Ransom, and Wabash Valley Slim for their setting up and painting the targets on Friday afternoon.

Thanks to High Ransom and Dynomite Don for making sure the match details were taken care of in my absence. It is good to know that the show will go on.

As always, thanks to all those who helped on the day of the match – the RO-II certified folks who took turns running the timer, those who did a very legible job in recording scores, and the others who picked up brass all day, and those spotted, watched loading and unloading tables. The match ran very smoothly because everybody pitched in. In addition, special thanks to all those who helped tear down and police the range after the match.

Thanks to Pat Gallagher for putting a couple of pictures on a short writeup in the Valdosta Daily Times® on Sunday, July 8, 2004. Here's one of the pictures, which appeared online on the Paper's website.
